

MISS RUSSELL BRIDE OF ALBERT W. WINTER

Aug. 1937

At a lovely summer wedding this afternoon, at three o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Russell of Falls Road, their daughter, Miss Margaret Louise Russell, became the bride of Albert Wesley Winter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Winter of Washington avenue, in Jermyn.

During the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. George R. Ellin, pastor of Berean Baptist church, the bridal party stood before a bank of palms which was arranged in the living room of the home. The wedding music was played by Mrs. William Rundle, pianist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in a gown of white satin fashioned en train and having a yoke of net embroidered with seed pearls. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a cap arrangement. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, white sweetpeas and babies breath.

Mrs. Walter Powell, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She was attired in a redingote gown of peach lace over taffeta and carried a bouquet of light blue delphinium and talisman roses.

Raymond Winter, of Jermyn, brother of the groom, was the best man.

A reception followed the ceremony which was witnessed by seventy-five guests. The reception rooms were decorated with garden flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Winter left on a motor trip through the New England states. Upon their return they will reside at 531 Washington avenue, Jermyn, for traveling the bride wore a white tailored Congo suit and had midnight blue accessories.

The bride is a graduate of the Carbondale High school and Wyoming Seminary. Mr. Winter was graduated from the Jermyn High school and attended the General Electric Training School at Schenectady. He is employed by the General Electric Construction Company at Scranton.
